

UNCART

Meaning: Uncart (verb): To remove items from a cart or vehicle.

1. The workers began to uncart the boxes from the delivery truck.
2. As soon as the shipment arrived, we hurried to uncart the items before it rained.
3. They carefully uncartered the fragile antiques to avoid any damage during the process.
4. After the event, it took hours to uncart all the equipment and pack it away.
5. The team was relieved to finally uncart the last of the supplies for the project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uncart>