

UNCHRISTIANLY

Meaning: Unchristianly: in a manner that is contrary to the principles or values of Christianity.

1. His actions were unchristianly, betraying the very values he claimed to uphold.
2. The community frowned upon her unchristianly remarks during the charity event.
3. It was unchristianly of him to refuse help to those in desperate need.
4. Their treatment of the vulnerable was deemed unchristianly by many in the congregation.
5. She found it unchristianly to harbor resentment against those who had wronged her.
6. His behavior during the argument was unchristianly, showing a lack of compassion and understanding.
7. The unchristianly remarks made at the meeting shocked many attendees who expected a more respectful dialogue.
8. She felt that their unchristianly treatment of the less fortunate contradicted the very teachings they claimed to uphold.
9. In an unchristianly act, they turned away those seeking help instead of offering them solace and support.
10. The community was appalled by the unchristianly decisions made by its leaders, which seemed to disregard the values of love and kindness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unchristianly>