

UNCIVIL

Meaning: Uncivil refers to behavior or remarks that are rude, disrespectful, or lacking in courtesy.

1. His uncivil remarks during the debate shocked both the audience and his opponents.
2. The uncivil behavior displayed in the meeting led to a heated exchange that accomplished nothing.
3. Despite her uncivil actions, she was surprised when her colleagues chose to distance themselves from her.
4. It's important to address uncivil discourse in society to foster healthier conversations.
5. They were reprimanded for their uncivil treatment of the staff during the event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uncivil>