

UNCLING

Meaning: Uncling: to release or detach oneself from something that is clinging or stuck.

1. As the storm raged on, she struggled to uncling her fingers from the cold metal railing.
2. The child tried to uncling the stubborn kite caught in the tree branches.
3. With a deep breath, he made an effort to uncling the negative thoughts that had been weighing him down.
4. The puppy was determined to uncling itself from the leash, eager to explore the park.
5. In her dream, she found it difficult to uncling from the memories of her past.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uncling>