UNCOIL

Meaning: Uncoil: to release or unwind from a coiled position, or to relax and relieve tension.

1. The snake began to uncoil itself from the branch, ready to slither away.
2. After a long day at work, I like to uncoil with a good book and a cup of tea.
3. As the spring slowly arrives, the tightly coiled buds of the plants start to uncoil and bloom.
4. The artist watched in awe as the sculpture seemed to uncoil and reveal its hidden beauty.
5. She took a deep breath, trying to uncoil the tension that had built up in her shoulders.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uncoil