

UNCOMPLETE

Meaning: Uncomplete (adjective): not finished or lacking necessary components; incomplete.

1. The project was deemed uncomplete, requiring further revisions before submission.
2. Her report felt uncomplete, lacking the essential data to support her conclusions.
3. He left the puzzle uncomplete, frustrated with the last few missing pieces.
4. The uncomplete manuscript needed additional chapters to provide a cohesive narrative.
5. They discovered the uncomplete application had several missing documents that needed to be provided.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uncomplete>