

UNCONCERN

Meaning: Unconcern refers to a lack of worry or interest in a situation, often characterized by indifference or calmness amidst chaos.

1. His unconcern about the situation surprised everyone who cared deeply.
2. Despite the chaos around her, she maintained an air of unconcern that was almost admirable.
3. The team's unconcern for the impending deadline led to a last-minute scramble.
4. He approached the issue with an unconcern that suggested he had no stake in the outcome.
5. Her unconcern for the rules set her apart from her more cautious colleagues.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unconcern>