

UNCONCLUSIVE

Meaning: Unconclusive refers to evidence or results that do not provide a definitive answer or conclusion.

1. The evidence presented in the trial was ultimately inconclusive, leaving the jury with more questions than answers.
2. Despite extensive research, the results of the study remained inconclusive, prompting further investigation.
3. Her findings were inconclusive, suggesting that more data would be needed to draw a solid conclusion.
4. The team's efforts to establish a cause for the phenomenon were inconclusive, highlighting the complexity of the issue.
5. Inconclusive results can often lead to frustration, especially when expectations are high for a definitive outcome.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unconclusive>