

UNCONFORM

Meaning: Unconform (verb): To deviate from established norms or standards, particularly in behavior or style.

1. The artist's decision to unconform to traditional styles set her apart in the competitive art scene.
2. In a world that often pressures conformity, he chose to unconform and embrace his unique identity.
3. Their lifestyle was a deliberate choice to unconform to societal expectations regarding success and happiness.
4. To unconform is to challenge the norms that dictate how we should live our lives.
5. She felt liberated when she decided to unconform, breaking free from the constraints of her upbringing.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unconform>