

UNCONSTANT

Meaning: Unconstant: characterized by a lack of consistency or stability; frequently changing or variable.

1. The weather in this region is notoriously unconstant, shifting from sunny to stormy within hours.
2. His unconstant enthusiasm made it difficult for the team to rely on him for consistent support.
3. The unconstant nature of her moods often left her friends unsure of how to approach her.
4. In a world that is increasingly interconnected, the economy has become unconstant, with rapid fluctuations.
5. Their unconstant relationship was marked by periods of closeness followed by long stretches of silence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unconstant>