

UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Meaning: Unconstitutional refers to something that is not in accordance with or violates the principles or provisions of a constitution.

1. The court ruled that the new law was unconstitutional and must be repealed.
2. Citizens rallied against the measure, claiming it was a blatant unconstitutional overreach.
3. Legal experts debated whether certain provisions of the act could be deemed unconstitutional.
4. The decision highlighted the importance of upholding constitutional rights and preventing unconstitutional actions.
5. Activists argued that the government's surveillance practices were not only invasive but also unconstitutional.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unconstitutional>