

UNCORRIGIBLE

Meaning: Uncorrectable or incapable of being reformed; persistently resistant to change or improvement.

1. The teacher found the student's uncorrectable behavior to be truly uncorregible.
2. Despite numerous attempts to reform him, his uncorregible tendencies led him back to old habits.
3. Everyone in the family accepted that their pet was uncorregible, but they loved him all the same.
4. Her uncorregible optimism often inspired those around her, even in difficult times.
5. The uncorregible nature of his pranks made it hard for his friends to take him seriously.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uncorrigible>