

UNCOVER

Meaning: Uncover: to reveal or discover something that was hidden or not previously known.

1. The investigative team worked tirelessly to uncover the truth behind the scandal.
2. As the archaeologists began to dig, they hoped to uncover ancient artifacts buried beneath the sand.
3. Her research aimed to uncover the hidden patterns in the data that others had overlooked.
4. The documentary seeks to uncover the stories of people who have been affected by climate change.
5. With each new revelation, the journalist was able to uncover layers of deception in the politician's claims.
6. The investigation aims to uncover the truth behind the mysterious disappearance.
7. She used a magnifying glass to uncover the details hidden in the old photograph.
8. After years of research, they finally uncovered the ancient manuscript in the library's archives.
9. His determination to uncover the source of the rumors led to unexpected revelations.
10. The documentary seeks to uncover the realities of life in the remote village.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uncover>