

UNCROWN

Meaning: To uncrown means to deprive someone of their crown, title, or status, often in a sudden or dramatic manner.

1. The once-mighty king was uncrowned in a dramatic turn of events.
2. Her ambitious plans seemed to uncrown the reigning champion unexpectedly.
3. The political scandal threatened to uncrown the long-standing leader of the party.
4. In his latest novel, the author explores the themes of power and the fear of being uncrowned.
5. The sudden shift in public opinion could uncrown even the most popular figures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uncrown>