

UNCULPABLE

Meaning: Unculpable means not deserving blame or guilt; innocent of wrongdoing.

1. The evidence presented in court proved that she was unculpable in the matter.
2. Despite the accusations, he remained confident that he was unculpable and would be exonerated.
3. In a society that values justice, it is essential to protect those who are unculpable from wrongful punishment.
4. The investigation revealed that the unculpable suspect had been at a different location during the crime.
5. Her unculpable nature was evident to everyone who knew her well, making the accusations all the more shocking.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unculpable>