

UNCURABLE

Meaning: Uncurable refers to a condition or disease that cannot be cured or resolved, often necessitating ongoing treatment or management.

1. Many diseases are considered incurable, leading to ongoing research for effective treatments.
2. Despite advancements in medicine, some conditions remain incurable and require lifelong management.
3. The diagnosis of an incurable illness can be devastating for both patients and their families.
4. She dedicated her life to raising awareness about incurable diseases and advocating for research funding.
5. Living with an incurable condition, he focused on maintaining a positive outlook and quality of life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/incurable>