UNCURABLY

Meaning: UNCURABLY: In a manner that cannot be cured or changed, often referring to a condition or attitude that is permanent or irreversible.

1. The patient was diagnosed with an uncurably rare disease that left the doctors baffled.

2. Despite her uncurably pessimistic outlook, her friends continued to support her with unwavering optimism.

3. He faced the uncurably complex problem with a determination that inspired everyone around him.

4. The novel depicted a world where many ailments were uncurably ingrained in society, leading to despair.

5. After years of research, scientists concluded that some conditions remained uncurably beyond their reach.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uncurably