

UNCUSTOMED

Meaning: Unaccustomed means not familiar or used to something, often resulting in discomfort or difficulty in adapting.

1. She was unaccustomed to the harsh winter climate after moving from a warmer region.
2. The students felt unaccustomed to the rigorous academic standards set by their new school.
3. After years of working from home, he found himself unaccustomed to the daily commute.
4. Living in a bustling city was unaccustomed for someone who grew up in a quiet town.
5. The sudden change in diet left him feeling unaccustomed to the new flavors and textures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uncustomed>