

UNDERBUILDING

Meaning: Underbuilding refers to the construction of a lower or less substantial structure beneath a larger building, often aimed at improving stability or optimizing land use.

1. The architect suggested an underbuilding to enhance the structural integrity of the new skyscraper.
2. In urban planning, underbuilding can lead to more efficient use of limited land resources.
3. The developers faced criticism for their decision to underbuild in a rapidly growing neighborhood.
4. She highlighted the importance of underbuilding as a strategy for sustainable architecture.
5. The city council approved the proposal, recognizing the benefits of underbuilding for future expansion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underbuilding>