

UNDERDEALING

Meaning: Underdealing refers to the act of engaging in secretive or dishonest practices in business dealings, often resulting in mistrust and reputational damage.

1. Underdealing often leads to mistrust among business partners.
2. The company's reputation suffered due to allegations of underdealing in their contracts.
3. She felt that underdealing would ultimately harm their long-term goals.
4. Investigators uncovered evidence of underdealing during the audit process.
5. His underdealing tactics might bring short-term gains but could jeopardize future relationships.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underdealing>