

UNDERDOER

Meaning: Underdoer: a person who performs below their potential or fails to meet expected standards, often resulting in missed opportunities.

1. In a competitive environment, the underdoer often misses opportunities that the overachievers seize.
2. Despite his talents, he remained an underdoer, failing to meet the expectations set by his peers.
3. The underdoer's lack of ambition became evident during the group project, where he contributed the least.
4. While many strive for excellence, some individuals choose the path of the underdoer, opting for comfort over challenge.
5. Her tendency to be an underdoer frustrated her team, as they constantly had to pick up the slack.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underdoer>