UNDERFILLING

Meaning: Underfilling refers to the act of filling a container or mold with insufficient material, which can cause spillage or defects in the final product.

1. Underfilling the container can lead to product spillage during transport.
2. The technician noted that underfilling the mold resulted in a defective part.
3. Underfilling is often a concern in the manufacturing process, affecting overall quality.
4. Due to underfilling, the final product did not meet the required specifications.
5. The team implemented measures to prevent underfilling in their production line.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underfilling