

UNDERFOOT

Meaning: Underfoot refers to the surface or ground directly beneath one's feet.

1. The fallen leaves rustled underfoot as we walked through the forest.
2. She noticed the cool, damp earth underfoot as she set up her camp.
3. There was a thick layer of snow underfoot, making each step a challenge.
4. With every stride, he could feel the gravel crunching underfoot.
5. The old wooden floor creaked underfoot, echoing through the empty room.
6. The old wooden floor creaked underfoot as she walked through the empty house.
7. He enjoyed the feeling of the cool grass underfoot during his morning run.
8. The hikers carefully navigated the rocky terrain, aware of the loose stones underfoot.
9. During the rainy season, the mud underfoot made every step a challenge.
10. Children giggled as they splashed through the puddles underfoot after the storm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underfoot>