

UNDERGLAZE

Meaning: Underglaze is a colored slip or paint applied to ceramics before glazing and firing, used to enhance decoration and design.

1. The artist applied a vibrant underglaze to the ceramic piece before firing it.
2. Many potters prefer using underglaze for its rich colors and versatility in design.
3. The intricate patterns were achieved using a combination of carving and underglaze techniques.
4. After the first firing, she carefully painted the details with a contrasting underglaze.
5. Underglaze can be used to create stunning effects on both earthenware and stoneware pottery.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underglaze>