

UNDERHONEST

Meaning: Underhonest: characterized by a lack of honesty or transparency, often involving deceit or misleading behavior.

1. Her underhonest approach to negotiations left many feeling deceived about the true terms of the agreement.
2. The underhonest nature of his claims was revealed when the evidence contradicted his statements.
3. In the world of business, underhonest practices can damage reputations and erode trust among partners.
4. Despite his underhonest tactics, she decided to confront him directly and seek the truth.
5. The underhonest dealings in the company finally came to light, prompting an internal investigation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underhonest>