

UNDERLINE

Meaning: To underline means to draw a line beneath text to emphasize or highlight its importance.

1. It's important to underline key concepts when studying for an exam.
2. The teacher asked us to underline the most significant points in the text.
3. She used a red pen to underline the errors in my essay.
4. To emphasize her argument, she decided to underline the crucial data in her presentation.
5. In her notes, she would often underline quotes that resonated with her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underline>