

UNDERMINER

Meaning: An underminer is a person who weakens or sabotages someone else's confidence, efforts, or authority through criticism or subtle actions.

1. The constant criticism from her peers revealed him to be an underminer of her confidence.
2. In the boardroom, his subtle remarks served as an underminer of the team's collective efforts.
3. She realized that the underminer in her life was not just a colleague but also someone she once considered a friend.
4. His actions were deemed as those of an underminer, quietly sabotaging the project from within.
5. Trust was eroded when they discovered the underminer had been spreading false information about the initiative.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underminer>