

UNDERPEEP

Meaning: Underpeep (verb): To look or peek from a concealed position, often to observe something discreetly.

1. The explorer decided to underpeep through the dense foliage to catch a glimpse of the rare bird.
2. As the children played hide and seek, they would often underpeep from behind the garden shed to see if they were being found.
3. To get a better view of the parade, she chose to underpeep from her balcony, craning her neck over the railing.
4. In the thrilling game of hide-and-seek, he would always try to underpeep from his hiding spot to stay one step ahead.
5. The photographer had to underpeep through the tall grass to capture the perfect shot of the elusive deer.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underpeep>