

UNDERPIN

Meaning: To support, justify, or form the basis for something.

1. The research findings will underpin our strategy for the next fiscal year.
2. A strong educational foundation is essential to underpin a successful career.
3. The architect designed the new building to underpin its stability against earthquakes.
4. Cultural values often underpin the decisions made by communities during crises.
5. Scientific evidence is needed to underpin claims made in health-related advertisements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underpin>