

UNDERPOISE

Meaning: To underpoise means to provide additional support or stabilization to a structure, particularly its foundation, to enhance its stability and prevent sinking.

1. The engineer proposed a new method to underpoise the building's foundation for better stability.
2. During the renovation, the team had to underpoise the structure to prevent any further sinking.
3. They decided to underpoise the heavy equipment to ensure it remained level on the uneven ground.
4. After surveying the property, the architect recommended underpoising the deck to enhance its safety.
5. Underpoising the existing supports was crucial to maintaining the integrity of the historic site.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underpoise>