

UNDERPRODUCTION

Meaning: Underproduction refers to the insufficient production of goods or services, resulting in a shortfall that can disrupt supply chains or raise concerns among stakeholders.

1. Underproduction of essential goods can lead to significant supply chain disruptions.
2. The company's underproduction last quarter raised concerns among its investors.
3. A sustained period of underproduction may result in increased prices for consumers.
4. The agricultural sector is facing challenges due to underproduction caused by adverse weather conditions.
5. Addressing the issue of underproduction is crucial for meeting future market demands.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underproduction>