

UNDERPROOF

Meaning: Underproof (adjective): having a lower alcohol content than intended or required.

1. The underproof beer had a lower alcohol content than the brewer intended.
2. After testing the batch, they discovered it was significantly underproof for their standards.
3. The underproof spirits lacked the depth of flavor that customers usually enjoyed.
4. His underproof performance in the competition left his team disappointed.
5. To achieve the desired effect, the mixologist realized the cocktail was underproof and needed more spirits.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underproof>