

UNDERPULL

Meaning: Underpull refers to a mistake or oversight in negotiation or execution that results in a less advantageous outcome or improper tensioning of materials.

1. The team realized they had made an underpull during the negotiation, resulting in a less favorable contract.
2. Despite the risks, the engineers proceeded with the underpull technique to ensure the cables remained secure.
3. The project faced delays due to an underpull of resources, which hindered progress on critical tasks.
4. She explained how the underpull in funding affected the charity's ability to provide services to those in need.
5. To avoid an underpull in their marketing efforts, the company decided to allocate more budget towards advertising.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underpull>