UNDERSIGN

Meaning: To undersign means to sign one's name at the end of a document or agreement to indicate approval or consent.

1. To finalize the agreement, both parties must undersign the contract.
2. Please ensure you undersign the document before submitting it to the committee.
3. The witnesses were asked to undersign the will to verify its authenticity.
4. After reviewing the terms, she decided to undersign the lease without hesitation.
5. It is customary for both shareholders to undersign any significant corporate decisions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/undersign