

UNDERTOW

Meaning: Undertow: a strong, submerged current that flows away from the shore, often posing a danger to swimmers in the ocean.

1. The strong undertow caught him off guard as he waded into the ocean.
2. Swimmers were warned to be cautious of the undertow that could pull them under.
3. She felt the undertow dragging at her legs, urging her deeper into the water.
4. Despite the calm surface, the undertow beneath posed a serious danger to beachgoers.
5. The lifeguard kept a close watch on the waves, knowing that the undertow could change quickly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/undertow>