

UNDERWING

Meaning: Underwing refers to the underside of a bird's or insect's wing, often characterized by distinctive colors or patterns.

1. The underwing of the moth displayed an intricate pattern that captivated the researchers.
2. Birdwatchers eagerly waited to catch a glimpse of the rare species known for its striking underwing coloration.
3. On warm summer nights, the underwing of the butterfly glinted in the moonlight, revealing its vibrant hues.
4. The naturalist explained how the underwing serves as a defense mechanism by confusing predators.
5. As the bird took flight, its underwing flashed bright colors, a stunning contrast against the muted landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underwing>