

UNDERWRITE

Meaning: To underwrite means to agree to take on the financial risk of a project or issuance, typically by providing funding or guaranteeing the sale of securities.

1. The bank agreed to underwrite the company's new bond issuance.
2. In order to secure funding, the startup needed to find an investor willing to underwrite its project.
3. Insurance firms typically underwrite policies by assessing the risk involved.
4. The venture capital firm decided to underwrite the tech startup's expansion plans.
5. Before launching the event, the organizers sought sponsors to underwrite the costs.
6. The bank agreed to underwrite the new housing development project.
7. In order to launch the startup, they needed an investor willing to underwrite their initial costs.
8. Insurance companies typically underwrite policies based on the risk associated with the applicant.
9. The venture capital firm decided to underwrite the innovative technology that promised to revolutionize the industry.
10. Investors were hesitant to underwrite the film due to its unconventional narrative and high budget.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/underwrite>