

UNDIFFERENTIATED

Meaning: Undifferentiated refers to a lack of distinction or variation, resulting in a uniform or indistinguishable quality.

1. The artist's style was characterized by an undifferentiated blend of colors that evoked a sense of harmony.
2. In the debate on climate change, some critics argue that the politician's undifferentiated approach fails to address specific environmental issues.
3. The undifferentiated mass of students in the lecture hall made it difficult for the speaker to gauge their engagement.
4. Her undifferentiated feelings about the situation left her confused about how to proceed.
5. The company struggled to stand out in a market filled with undifferentiated products that offered little distinction.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/undifferentiated>