

UNDISCLOSE

Meaning: Undisclose: to refrain from revealing or making known specific information or details.

1. The company chose to undisclose the terms of the agreement to protect its competitive edge.
2. After much deliberation, the board decided to undisclose certain financial details to the public.
3. She was frustrated by the need to undisclose personal information that she preferred to keep private.
4. The investigation revealed that some crucial findings were deliberately undisclosed to the stakeholders.
5. In an effort to maintain confidentiality, the lawyer advised his client to undisclose sensitive evidence during the trial.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/undisclose>