

UNDOING

Meaning: Undoing refers to the act or process of reversing or causing the failure of something that has been achieved or established.

1. The sudden change in leadership felt like the undoing of years of progress.
2. Her reckless decisions led to the undoing of a once-promising career.
3. They were faced with the daunting task of undoing the damage caused by the storm.
4. His inability to adapt was ultimately his undoing in the competitive industry.
5. The community rallied together to prevent the undoing of their cherished traditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/undoing>