

UNDWELLABLE

Meaning: Undwellable: incapable of being dwelled upon or contemplated, often leading to a sense of peace or a unique appreciation of beauty.

1. The concept of undwellable thoughts can often lead to a sense of inner peace.
2. In nature, there exist places that are undwellable, yet they hold a unique beauty.
3. Her mind was filled with undwellable ideas that kept her awake at night.
4. The architect designed the space with the belief that it should be undwellable, promoting movement rather than stillness.
5. Despite its allure, the abandoned estate felt strangely undwellable, as if it repelled visitors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/undwellable>