

UNEQUALNESS

Meaning: Unequalness refers to the state or condition of being unequal, particularly in terms of opportunities, resources, or treatment among different groups.

1. The unequalness of opportunities in education remains a pressing social issue.
2. Her speech highlighted the unequalness that persists in the distribution of wealth.
3. Despite efforts to promote equality, the unequalness in access to healthcare is evident in many communities.
4. The artist's work reflects the emotional turmoil caused by the unequalness in human relationships.
5. Discussions about climate change often reveal the unequalness faced by developing nations compared to industrialized ones.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unequalness>