

UNESSENTIAL

Meaning: Unessential refers to something that is not necessary or important, often diverting attention from primary goals or needs.

1. The project was delayed because the team was focused on unessential details rather than the main objectives.
2. In a world filled with distractions, it's important to recognize what is unessential to our happiness.
3. She decided to declutter her house, getting rid of unessential items that had accumulated over the years.
4. The meeting was filled with unessential chatter that could have been avoided through more effective communication.
5. He realized that many of his daily routines were unessential and decided to simplify his life.
6. The committee decided to eliminate unessential items from the budget to focus on critical needs.
7. In her minimalist lifestyle, she learned to distinguish between essential and unessential possessions.
8. The unessential details in the report made it difficult for the team to grasp the main point.
9. He realized that most of his worries were unessential and chose to focus on what truly mattered.
10. During the renovation, they prioritized the essential upgrades and left the unessential decor for later.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unessential>