

UNFAIR

Meaning: Unfair refers to a situation or action that is not just, equitable, or impartial, often resulting in disadvantage or inequality among individuals or groups.

1. It seems unfair that some students have access to more resources than others.
2. The decision to cut funding for the program felt particularly unfair to those who benefitted from it.
3. She considered the late penalty on assignments to be an unfair practice.
4. Many people believe that it's unfair to judge someone based on their appearance alone.
5. The referee's call during the game was so questionable that it sparked an unfair advantage for one team.
6. It seems unfair that some students have access to better resources than others.
7. The referee's decision was so clearly biased that it felt utterly unfair to the players.
8. She considered it unfair for her colleagues to take credit for her hard work.
9. The distribution of wealth in the country is often criticized as being profoundly unfair.
10. Many believe that the new policy is unfair to those who have been loyal customers for years.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unfair>