

UNFENCE

Meaning: Unfence: to remove a fence or barrier from an area to promote openness or accessibility.

1. The city decided to unfence the park to encourage more community gatherings.
2. After much debate, the committee voted to unfence the playground for better accessibility.
3. In an effort to promote wildlife conservation, the organization chose to unfence the nature reserve.
4. They planned to unfence the garden to allow the neighborhood children to play freely.
5. The decision to unfence the property sparked discussions about safety and security.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unfence>