

UNFIRM

Meaning: Unfirm: lacking stability or firmness; weak or insecure in structure or determination.

1. The foundation of the old building was unfirm, causing concerns about its stability.
2. Her unfirm resolve made it difficult for her to stick to her decision.
3. He spoke in an unfirm voice, unsure of how his words would be received.
4. In an unfirm economy, many people are hesitant to make long-term investments.
5. The unfirm surface of the trail made hiking more challenging than expected.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unfirm>