

UNFIX

Meaning: UNFIX: to remove or detach something that has been fixed in place, or to free oneself from a set mindset or established belief.

1. The engineer had to unfix the component to make the necessary adjustments.
2. After years of adhering to tradition, she decided to unfix her perspective on success.
3. He managed to unfix the stubborn lid from the jar after several attempts.
4. The team worked together to unfix the schedule that had become too rigid and unmanageable.
5. In therapy, they encouraged him to unfix his negative thought patterns and embrace a new mindset.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unfix>