

UNFOUNDED

Meaning: Unfounded means lacking a basis in fact or reality; not supported by evidence.

1. Her fears about the project's failure were unfounded, as it ultimately exceeded all expectations.
2. The allegations made against him were proven to be completely unfounded and baseless.
3. Despite the rumors circulating in the office, her concerns were unfounded and lacked any supporting evidence.
4. The criticism from the media was largely unfounded, based on misinterpretations of the facts.
5. He dismissed the accusations as unfounded and reaffirmed his commitment to transparency.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unfounded>