

UNFRIENDSHIP

Meaning: Unfriendship is the state or condition of having severed or diminished friendship, often characterized by avoidance and emotional distance.

1. The concept of unfriendship can often feel more painful than a simple breakup.
2. His unfriendship with her was evident in the way they avoided each other at social events.
3. After a series of misunderstandings, their once close bond descended into unfriendship.
4. The rise of social media has made unfriendship more public and, at times, more dramatic.
5. Finding peace after unfriendship requires both time and self-reflection for those involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unfriendship>