

UNFURL

Meaning: To unfurl means to open or spread out from a rolled or folded state, revealing what is contained within.

1. The artist watched as the canvas began to unfurl under the strokes of her brush.
2. As the sun rose, the petals of the flowers started to unfurl, revealing their vibrant colors.
3. With a gentle tug, he was able to unfurl the tightly rolled map and study the terrain ahead.
4. The flag began to unfurl in the wind, its bright colors catching the attention of passersby.
5. After days of anticipation, she finally let her fears unfurl and embraced the new opportunities before her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unfurl>